

2024 Australian Early Development Census

AEDC Reports

AEDC Report	What it will tell you	When and how you will receive or access the report
AEDC School Profile* 	The School Profile provides in-depth information about the cohort of children captured in the AEDC data at your school, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • child demographic characteristics • transition to school information • your school's AEDC domain and summary indicator results over time, including the latest collection year • information about how to use your school's results • links to other AEDC resources. Schools are encouraged to view their School Profile alongside community, state/territory and national results. This can help build understanding of the results in the broader context of changes shaping early childhood development in Australia.	Immediately available to schools upon completion of the AEDC, downloadable from the AEDC data collection system.
AEDC School Profile Addendum* 	The School Profile Addendum includes everything in the School Profile plus trends in state/territory and national AEDC results, presented alongside your school's AEDC results.	March 2025, with the release of the national AEDC results. Provided securely to your school Principal via email and/or school administration portals. Contact your AEDC State and Territory Coordinator for more information.

* School Profiles and Addendums are available to schools where AEDC data for six or more children (without special needs) is collected at the school.

AEDC Report

What it will tell you

When and how you will receive or access the report

AEDC Community Profile

Community Profiles present results from geographic areas, usually equivalent to a local government area. They include important information, such as demographics and characteristics of children in the area, to help provide context for the results. A Community Profile includes similar information to a School Profile and School Profile Addendum, but for children living in a community, regardless of where they attend school.

March 2025, with the release of the national AEDC results. Publicly available on the AEDC website.

Visit www.aedc.gov.au

AEDC National Report

The National Report provides a snapshot of the AEDC results across Australia including a breakdown by state/territory and key equity groups. Results from the current AEDC cycle are compared with all previous collection cycles, identifying trends in early childhood development across Australia. It highlights where gains have been made over time, and where more work is still needed.

March 2025, publicly available on the AEDC website.

Visit www.aedc.gov.au

 Community Profiles are published where 15 or more children (without special needs) and two or more teachers in the community participate in the AEDC.

Links to resources and AEDC help

Visit the 'Help Centre' in the AEDC secure data collection system for a copy of this fact sheet and links to related resources. If you need support with the secure data collection system or have any other questions, the AEDC team is here to help. Email helpdesk@aedc.gov.au or phone 1800 092 548.

© 2024 Commonwealth of Australia.
Since 2002, the Australian Government has worked in partnership with eminent child health research institutes, the Centre for Community Child Health at The Royal Children's Hospital and the Murdoch Children's Research Institute, Melbourne, and the Telethon Kids Institute, Perth to deliver the Australian Early Development Census program to communities nationwide. The Australian Government continues to work with its partners, and with state and territory governments to implement the AEDC.